PRESS TELEGRAMS.

London 27th—Advices from Bucharest state that on Friday an encounter took place near Adrianople between Turkish and Roumelian forces, resulting in 30 killed and 300 wounded of the Roumelian soldiers.

It is also stated that recently the Commander of the Rustchuk arsenal allowed a vessel with a cargo of arms and war material to sail apparently in the direction of Antwerp but in reality bound for Bargas, a Roumelian port.

The Turkish losses during the ten days' encounters with the Albanian forces amount to 200 men killed, whilst the Albanian lost 1000 killed.

The proposal to convene a conference for the purpose of arranging the Roumelian question is favorably viewed.

Advices from Beirut report great agitation throughout Syria in consequence of the unexpected decree mobilizing the reserves, which, for the last six years, have been free from active service. The severity with which the mobilization is being carried out has caused great indignation and excitement.

Philippopolis 27th—The financial situation of Roumelia is considered satisfactory.

A decree has been issued prohibiting the agitation in favor of a revolt in Macedonia. Those inculpated in said agitation are to be tried by court-martial. The officers on the frontier have received orders to suppress any patriotic disturbances and maintain the most perfect order.

War preparations are being actively made on a large scale.

London 28th—The Bulgarian Government have purchased the railway from Rustchuk to Varna for £1,780,000.

Cholera has broken out at Nice. Already 8 fatal cases have occurred. Panic has seized the inhabitants, and trade is completely paralysed.

Santiago de Chile, 27th.—It appears from a correspondence published in a newspaper in Lima that Caceres thinks it impossible to oppose the Iglesias Government at the present moment. He, therefore, appeals to the people to support him and give him arms for the purpose of overthrowing the Government.

The Cacerista General, Leon, has seized Ica, after a bloody fight with the garrison.

Rio Janeiro, 28th.—The elections for Parliament will take place on the 15th Jan. 1886.

Colon, 29th—The Saturno brought a number of books for the public library. The Custom House officials at first thought that an attempt was being made to introduce arms.

Montevideo, 29th.—The "Nacion" attacks Dr. Costa. The official papers follow suit.

Minister Carve is ill and has not left his room for the last three days.

The Verduleros will have a torch-light demonstration to-night, as the appropriate means of giving vent to their enthusiastic and irrepressible feelings of gratitude towards the President of the Republic.

It is stated that General Santos will purchase the thorough-bred horses brought out in the Hermes.

One of the papers here hints at the possibility of blood being spilled in the Argentine Republic as the Presidential campaign becomes more animated.

The Orenoque has not been sighted yet.

At Colonia a plaza is being built, and will bear the name of General Santos.

The Silex sails this evening for B. Ayres.

In political circles everything appears to be dull.

NATIONAL LAND AUCTION.

Yesterday the last series of the National land auctions was held at the office of National lands and colonies, corner of Calles Rivadavia and Salta, the lots put up being those which were bid for at previous sales, but the buyers failed to come forward after the sale and to comply with the conditions of purchase.

The lots in question are in the triangle formed by the Nauquen and Limay, and about 300 leagues distance from Buenos Ayres; yet, spite of their great distance, and the few who have ever visited that territory, the "patio" where the auction was held, was filled with buyers, there being a few English, German and French buyers interspersed amongst the crowd.

The first lot put up was No. 7, Section I, which contained 3,750 hect. is far from the river and in the hills, it sold for 75 cents hectare. Second lot, No. 16, same Section, also in the hills, 32 cents. Third lot, No. 17, facing on the river Limay, 100 cents per hectare, and the last lot, this Section, No. 34, facing on the same river and running back on the hills, 2 leagues, fetched 75 cents per hectare.

In the second Section, which has no frontage on any river and all inland:—

Lot 29......	40 cts. per hect
" 30......	55 "
" 32......	35 "

which is considered by those who know the land a very high price:—

Section 3, with 4 lots, facing on the Nauquen, but high barrancas on the river, sold as follows:—

Lot 7	on river	52 cents.
" 8	" "	76 "
" 11	" "	88 "
" 20	" "	115 "
Lot 14	inland	31 "
" 21	"	40 "
" 22	"	75 "

Section 4 with 3 lots facing on the Limay sold so:—

Lot 1	inland	85 "
" 9	"	30 "
" 13	"	35 "
" 16	"	31 "
" 17	"	30 "
" 7	on river	165 "
" 11	"	85 "
" 26	"	70 "

Section 5, all inland lots sold as follows:—

Lot 1	inland	32 cents
" 13	"	26 "
" 18	"	28 "

Section 6, on the Nauquen:—

Lot 4	on river	100 cents
" 5	"	60 "
" 8	"	70 "

In Section 7 nothing for sale, but in Section 8 the best lot in the whole triangle was put up; it has a fort on it, faces the river Limay and has a tenant at present on the land with cows and sheep. This lot No. 24 sold the highest of any put up, and was bid for by parties from Europe at as high a figure as 2 nats per hect., equal to 5,000 nats. per league, yet it sold for 2.15 per hect. and was bought up by an Italian farmer on the Rio Negro. The lots of this section sold so:—

Lot 1	inland	32 cents
" 5	"	29 "
" 6	"	26 "
" 9	"	26 "
" 21	"	26 "
" 29	"	31 "

Lot 24 on river and with old fort 2,689 hectares sold for 2.15 per hectare.

Section 9, all inland and no river frontage:—

Lot 7	for	23 cents
" 11	"	24 "
" 14	"	40 "
" 20	"	25 "

Section 10 is also all inland, very poor land and no water.

Lot 18 sold for	31 cts.
" 22 "	30

Section 11 has mountains and a grand 'cañada', but no river frontage.

Lot 3 sold for	28 cts.
" 30 "	60
" 31 "	35
" 12 "	60

A small portion of this section fronts on the Arroyo Covunco, and the following lots facing on this arroyo sold so:—

Lot N for	$1.35
" O "	1.35
" P "	1.35
" Q "	1.35
" R "	1.10

This closed the sale. All the 'boletos' were signed; and we heard from many parties in the patio that most of the buyers are settling and stocking the lands, which shows how the whole country moves.

THE MISIONES QUESTION.

Everyone who takes an interest in the future of this country will be rejoiced to hear that the long pending Misiones limit question, between this Republic and the Empire of Brazil, is at last settled. Not many years ago the angry feelings excited by the intemperate articles of some of our colleagues gave rise to very great apprehension, but the wisdom and patience of both Governments in postponing the question has secured its peaceful solution, and we warmly congratulate H.E. Baron de Alencar, and H.E. Dr Ortiz, that their names will be imperishably attached to a treaty that settles the dispute and secures peace and good will to the peoples of the nations they both so worthily represent.

The Brazilian Government and the Brazilian people have ever shewn the greatest friendship and good feeling towards this Republic. The Brazilian Minister-Residents here never miss an occasion to show Argentines the interest they take in everything going on in the country. We all remember the prominent part Brazil played at our International Exhibition of 1882, and the large amount of money Brazil spent to help the Show. It is pleasant to note the same friendly feeling in everything that concerns the industrial progress of the Republic, and if our infantine sugar interest begins to clash with that of Brazil, we look for the same broad, open, friendly policy on the part of both nations and not an insignificant Custom House squabble unworthy two such great nations.

Baron de Alencar and Dr. Ortiz merit pens of the purest gold to commemorate their signing at the Foreign Office on Monday a treaty so calculated to arouse National interest, as it points to the final settlement of the Misiones question. This treaty, which was signed by Dr. Ortiz, Argentine Minister for Foreign Affairs, and Baron de Alencar, the Brazilian Minister to this Republic, authorizes the exploration of the rivers Pepiri Mini, San Antonio, Pequiri Guazu and San Antonio Guazu, which enclose on the West side, that part of the Misiones territory so long disputed by the Argentine and Brazilian Governments. According to stipulation, a mixed commission, comprising three representatives of both nations, is to explore this belt of territory and decide on its occupation by one of the two nations. The territory in dispute is limited on the North by the Iguaza and on the South by the Uruguay.

The Brazilians claim the Pepiri Mini, which they call the Chapeco, and the San Antonio or Chopin, as the proper limits. Both rivers take their source in the chain of mountains which begin at the confluence of the Parana and Iguazu. On the other hand the Argentine Government claim the Pequiri Guazu and the San Antonio Guazu as the proper limits. A glance at the map would shew our readers the difference that springs from these claims. The disputed territory has an area of 100 square leagues, and it is here the mixed Commission will set to work as stipulated in the treaty signed on Monday at the Foreign Office. After a minute study of the claims of both parties, the Commission will definitely solve the question.

The Government message was presented to Congress yesterday.

POST OFFICE REPORT.

FOREIGN SERVICE.

Through the medium of Don Francisco P. Hansen, representative of the Argentine Republic at the Postal Congress which assembled at Lisbon during the first months of the present year, the Republic obtained many important concessions, calculated to improve to no inconsiderable extent our present postal service.

For us the principal and most important question was the faculty accorded the South American Governments to contract with the Steam Navigation Companies for the carriage of the mails, on conditions specified by said Governments.

When the question was under discussion the South American representatives, who unanimously upheld Mr. Hansen's views, took a prominent part in the debate.

The representative of the Argentine Republic signed the following additional clauses not included in the Paris Convention; additional arrangements not included in the Paris Convention; additional arrangements in the post office order service; and other arrangements of minor importance.

These projects have been presented to Congress and passed, and will come into force after the 1st April of the coming year.

The Post Office order service constitutes a new source of revenue for the Argentine Republic, and at the same time affords more convenience and facility for persons in the colonies, for instance, who were formerly obliged to draw bills of exchange to remit small sums of money to their families in Europe. The other arrangements which our representative signed are not less calculated to afford every convenience and facility to the public at large.

With regard to our foreign correspondence, the number of letters, papers, documents etc that have passed through the Post Office, during the course of the year 1884, was 4,228,395; of this number 131,904 were registered, 2,642,265 were letters, and the remainder papers etc. These figures shew an increase of 284,559 letters and 170,989 papers etc, as compared with the corresponding figures of 1883.

Of these figures, 67 o/o represent European correspondence, 30 o/o correspondence with the South American republics.

The Latin countries of Europe absorb 70 o/o of our total letter correspondence; and the other countries of the same continent 30 o/o.

The eight countries with which our postal relations are most important are:—

	Letters.	Papers, etc.
Uruguay......	593,100	451,700
Italy..........	542,700	131,000
France..........	362,100	217,600
Spain..........	288,200	98,900
Great Britain..	283,500	270,600
Germany........	162,600	107,200
Brazil..........	72,500	60,900
Paraguay......	56,300	58,200

It may be observed that Great Britain carries on a more lively Book and Parcel Post service than Italy and Spain together, although our letter correspondence with these two countries is three times as great.

Our Registered-Letter service is the greatest with Italy, which shews 56,780, and least with Great Britain which shews only 4,309 registered letters.

The following new postal services were established during the year:—

		Kilometers
January........	Ferro Carril del Oeste Pergamino to San Nicolas......	40
April..........	Ferro Carril del Sud La Gama to Bahia Blanca......	254
August........	Ferro Carril del Sud Temperley to La Plata..........	56
September......	Ferro Carril del Oeste Pergamino to Rojas..........	40
October........	Ferro Carril Central Norte Frias to Santiago........	162
October........	Ferro Carril del Oeste Lobos to Saladillo..........	83
December........	Ferro Carril Transandino, Mercedes to Chacabuco....	98
December........	Ferro Carril Andino, La Paz to Maipu..............	125
	Total........	858

In the city and suburbs districts correspondence has been very lively during the year 1884: 2,389,478 letters and 2,807,200 papers etc have passed through the Post-Office in this branch of service. These figures compare favorably with 1883, during which year 1,995,563 letters and 1,442,340 papers etc passed through the Post-Office for this service.

Home Correspondence—During the course of the year 1884 the number of letters passed through the Post-Office for this service was 13,877,646, and the number of papers etc. amounted to 9,039,088. These figures shew an increase of 14½ o/o as compared with 1883.

It may be observed that a notable increase in correspondence has taken place in those provinces which receive the bulk of our European immigration and which have railways running through their territories. A great part of the correspondence with the Interior is forwarded by diligences and consequently is often delayed in transmission. Nevertheless, the railways recently built have put a timely end to many of these diligence lines.

The Post-Office receipts for the year 1884 amount to $m/n 638,675.

These figures compared with those of 1883 shew an increase of $m/n 61,504, say 11 per cent. In previous reports it was stated that in three provinces only the returns covered expenses, the others presenting a deficit more or less considerable. The same disproportion was remarked during 1884, as only Buenos Ayres, Santa Fé, and Entre Rios covered expenditure.

If the returns continue to increase in the same proportion, they will amount to $m/n 715,000 in 1885, and $800,000 in 1886.

The Post-Office expenditure for 1884 amounts to $m/n 676,459, divided amongst the different provinces.

The Post-Office was authorized to expend $m/n 695,606 for the same year; thus an economy of $m/n 19,147 has been effected.

The expenditure in 1883 amounted to $m/n 553,121. The increase during 1884 is explained by the establishment of new services of diligences, steamers, etc, unforeseen expenses caused by inundations in the Buenos Ayres camps, and quarantines and fumigation expenses in Montevideo.

CHASCOMUS FERIA RURAL.

The fifteenth annual fair of sheep, horses and cattle was opened on Thursday last by the President, Sr. Dn. Roberto Bruce, before a large concourse of people, composed chiefly of estancieros from the partido around Chascomus.

There was a good show of sheep, and we noticed "Esparcillar," "Las Barrancas," "La Florida," "La Adela," were well to the front with their Lincolns, which sold at very fair prices. The Lincoln rams, bred in the country, were sold at prices ranging from 12 to 43 Nacionales each, and, considering these were not the pick of the flocks, they sold well.

Rambouillet rams sold at various prices, ranging from 12 up to 130 Nacionales. Some pure Rambouillet rams, from Las Barrancas, were much admired, as were the Lincoln ewes, from Sr. Dn. D. S. Dodds, who has a good number of these prolific sheep, and he strongly advocates them for this partido.

On the whole, the show may be considered quite equal to last year, if not better; and were the estancieros to patronise the show more, and exemplify the worthy President in his endeavors for the success of this fair, it would be second to none in the country.

We were pleased to note the great interest taken in the long-wool sheep here, and the estancieros hereabouts are evidently anticipating a future for their fat 'capones,' when they will get double the price they now do, so soon as a regular line of refrigerating ships be established between England and Buenos Aires.

A great attraction during the show was a pen of very scabby sheep, brought in by Hayward, the "especifico de glycerina" man, but the society would not admit them they were so scabby. Nothing daunted, Hayward had them in proximity, with a yellow flag floating over them. These sheep were cured during the fair, before a large concourse of people, who were much interested, and several estancieros, seeing the easy process of curing with this remedy, ordered quantities for their estancias for the forthcoming dipping season.

We consider it a pity that so many estancieros think well to send in their culls to these rural shows instead of their fine stock, for notwithstanding they may not sell the latter, the people see where they are to be bought, and the estanciero establishes himself a reputation by so doing, for much convenience seems to be made of these fairs for clearing off their old stock, which, in the eye of the public, is calculated to bring upon themselves discredit, instead of increasing their reputation as breeders of fine stock, which, in our opinion, is the prime object of the society.

ENGLISH LITERARY SOCIETY.

To the Editor of the STANDARD.

Dear Sir,

Permit me to intrude upon your space with reference to a letter regarding this Society, which appeared in your issue of Sunday.

The committee have in former years issued a list of candidates pledged to serve the Institution, and, if my memory serves me correctly, the President of the society, prior to the election, has always stated to the meeting that the committee suggested these gentlemen as successors to those retiring, although members were free to vote for whom they pleased.

At the general meeting in March it was agreed that, in future, names of members desiring to serve on the committee be posted in the reading room for three weeks before the date of the general meeting, a list of such candidates to be printed and distributed at the meeting. This was done on Wednesday last. The list referred to by your correspondent "a member," containing five of the names appearing on the official list of the Society, was doubtless distributed by one of the candidates with a view to aid election, and perhaps the article in your valuable paper was, as suggested, inspired.

"All's fair in love and war," and I presume one may add, elections, provided the actual voting is not tampered with. As to what a member says about "cliqueism," it must be an extraordinary cliqueism which introduces into the present committee four gentlemen who have figured 'on the so-called' opposition list of a year ago; it is really, in my opinion, by "such cliqueism" that the prosperity and long life of popular institutions are secured. So much, Sir, for the underhand influence, dishonesty, etc which your correspondent so vulgarly attributes to the committee.

The names of the President, and members of the committee, are a sufficient guarantee that the Society's interest will be administered fairly. I do not think as men of the world the committee are likely to be coerced into "officially disclaiming emphatically" charges which are as calumnious as they are absurd.

Your correspondent takes exception to the expression "k'rect card;" possibly because he himself did not figure on it, and was consequently discarded!

As to the building fund, it was on the motion of a member of the Society that the sum of $1,000 m/n was passed to credit of that fund, and the authority conferred on the Committee to purchase a site was the outcome of suggestions made in the printed annual report.

In conclusion I would suggest to 'A Member," if he considers himself or his friends aggrieved, the proper course would be to call a General Meeting.

I must apologize for occupying so much of you space, but as a supporter of the English Literary Society, and an admirer of the excellent work done by the Managing Body, I am anxious to correct some misimpressions which "A Member's" letter may create.

I am, dear Sir,
Yours faithfully,
Another Member.

Buenos Aires, Sept 28th.

PARIS LETTER.

(From our own Correspondent.)

Paris, August 19th.

Eugéne Chanzy was born of "poor but honest parents," at Nauart, in the Ardennes in 1822. Nauart is a small village of 900 inhabitants, devoted to mining, weaving, and charcoal making. General de Failly was there beaten by the Prince of Saxony in 1870. Chanzy's family earned their living at all the occupations of the village, proof that

> "Prodigious actions may as well be done,
> By weaver's issue, as by prince's son."

At sixteen years of age, Chanzy volunteered for the marine, then he was transferred to the artillery; in the meantime he had been educating himself, and so well, that he passed the entrance examination for the officers' school at St. Cyr, his family aiding to make up the 1,500 fr. yearly for his support. At the end of two years he passed his final examination, was nominated sub-Lieutenant in 1840 in a regiment of those "risk-alls," the Zouaves, commanded by the republican General Cavaignac. His residence in Africa was the means of developing his marked administrative talents in dealing with the Arabs and the European Colonists. He made the campaigns of Italy, Syria, and the occupation of Rome. His reputation had been rising fast, and it is said the Emperor and Marshall Lebœuf kept him designedly in the back-ground, in Algeria, while his promotion was ever rapid.

After the blundering collapse of Macmahon at Sedan and the criminal capitulation of Bazaine at Metz, public attention and patriotic hope were fixed on Chanzy; he was recalled by Gambetta from Algeria, to command the legions of recruits that the Dictator made spring forth from the ground at each stamp of his foot. With Sedan and Metz, the flower of the French army had disappeared; the Germans under Von der Than and the late Prince Frederick Charles were rapidly sweeping like a wave across France, their aim being to prevent the new levies from concentrating, dividing them, and above all preventing their march to the relief of Paris. When the army of the Loire was split in two by the enemy Chanzy was nominated to the supreme command of the second army that of the Loire. He maintained an heroic struggle with his recruits during two months of a desperate winter. Every moment he was attacked by three corps d'armée. He compelled the Germans to put 180,000 men in line to force him to retreat; he wanted to tire them out by a series of indefinite engagements so as to gain time for his new forces to be organised in the rear.

Unfortunately a panic seized the Brittany militia, and the key of hisdefence was lost; for six days Chanzy fought terribly round le Mans, but had to fall back on Laval, where he was occupied organizing a new army when negotiations for peace commenced. Benan lately said at the Academy the best general is he who wins the victory. Chanzy did not win, but the Germans themselves testify to his remarkable ability. With young troops hardly organized, in the midst of winter, in presence of enemies more numerous, more disciplined, and flushed with victories, Chanzy displayed a tenacity, a faith in his country, an ascendancy over his soldiers that France might proudly honor, as she has done to her deceased General, in the monument just erected to him at Mans.

The rest of Chanzy's career was passed in the worst of all middles, that of politics, and those politics too French. It was with difficulty he escaped the fate of the hostages under the Commune. He was only set at liberty after six days' imprisonment, on giving his word of honor he would not fight against the Communists. As Senator, and Governor of Algeria, he displayed no special abilities, and in that inextricable labyrinth, the re-organization of the army, he was not happier than any other of the doctors. Military critics say that during the war he made the error, of extending his lines so much that they became weak, and above all, entrusting the key of his position at Mans to inexperienced troops, that fled.

Mans, is in the department of the Sarthe, on the river of this name. It is 134 miles South West from Paris, and has a population of 41,000. William the Conqueror captured it. Henry II. of England was born there, and on his accession was owner of about one-third of the present surface of France. It was at Mans that Charles VI became attacked with insanity, by his riding down and cutting some of his courtiers and pages, till he was caught, rolled up in his mantle, and handed over to his doctors. It was at Mans, that the Vendeans or royalists, made their last stand against the republicans in 1793, commanded by Marceau. After that of Beauvais, the Cathedral of Mans, is the purest specimen of Gothic architecture in France; its organ, dating from the sixteenth century, is celebrated. The neighborhood of Mans is renowned for its poultry. The inhabitants of Mans are very proud of the statue that chance has conferred on their city. The likeness of the hero is very striking, but the basso-relievos leave something to be desired. They symbolize the legends, 'Attack' and 'Defence,' but the figures are too crowded; the soldiers are represented with flags. Now Chanzy in his history of the war distinctly states his army had no flags. Yet the Germans not the less assert they took some. The inaugural ceremony presented nothing singular, except the presence of a military attaché from the Russian Embassy, who was loudly cheered, to indicate, if such were necessary, the side French sympathy—at present inclines to. It was to the late Czar that the Emperor of Germany returned thanks, after the God of Battles, for his success. Holy Russia commanding Austria and Italia, not to stir hand or foot to help the French, while England took no active part, save to obtain the reduction of the war indemnity, from seven to five milliards. Yet the Muscovites are loved, and the English detested.

EDITOR'S TABLE.

To-day Congress closes its legal Session, but as there is still much business to be transacted we believe the Session will be prorogued, as is customary each year. Some parties, however, who know a good deal of what is going on in the Government House, say that there will be no prorogation this year, which, if true, means a crush of bills through the house at the last moment that will not allow of 5 minutes' debate on anything. We think it more probable that the President will make out a list of measures and prorogue the house until they are despatched.

Congress was crowded yesterday to hear the curso forzoso debate, but it stands over for to-day.

Dr. Pellegrini took the oath of office on Monday, and assumed the portfolio of war then and there. Yesterday his Ministerio was crowded with friends who called to congratulate him.

Mr. Penano has at last got his railway through Congress. We have already described this scheme. The line will run to Oran, and will be one of the most important in the Interior.

The news from Europe last night was less warlike, and it seems that the new Conference at Constantinople will settle everything. So best.

Messrs. Bullrich's auction of seven leagues of land near Melincue, cut up into 'chacras' for colonies, proved a great success. It is the first instance we have of lands so far out in the camps being sold in farms for colonists, and points to a very great change in the selling of camp property. The price secured is easy for the purchaser and first-class for the seller of the land.

Don't forget Mr. Denstone's Entertainment to-night. English amusements are likely to be few and far between for the present, therefore, if for no other reason, he deserves encouragement, and we hope to see half Buenos Ayres there.

The Presbyterian Service was inaugurated on the 26th instant at "El Ortoño," Estancia "Los Rifles," by the Rev. M. P. Ferguson, assisted by an efficient choir. There was a goodly gathering of friends and countrymen, some having come from a distance of twelve leagues to assist at the marriage festivities that were celebrated on the 24th instant, and remained to attend the service. This estancia is one of the first established in this district, its enterprising proprietor being the pioneer of his countrymen to the far west, which is rapidly being populated. The name of the estancia, and the fame of the owner, as a sure and steady marksman, at seven hundred yards, kept all Indians, and their worse fraternity, at a respectful distance from the place, when they passed by a few years ago, on their depredatory incursions. From the ceremony and the service all returned with the most pleasing impressions of the hospitality of Mr. and Mrs. Neil Black. The town, Nueve de Julio, is a thriving and dainty little place, teeming with incipient life The plaza is being ornamented with choice shrubs, and is surrounded with a fine avenue of lofty gum trees, forming a pleasant promenade. The most attractive building is the Railway Station, situate on a prominent position, at the end of the principal street. A new church and school are about to be built.

We have received some particulars respecting the murderer of Richard Austin, who died on the 17th inst. in the British Hospital from the effects of a stab in the stomach. The murderer's name is Moran; he is a well-built, stout man, with fair hair and blue eyes. At the time of the quarrel, it appears, not having a knife of his own, Moran borrowed one from one of the young men present. The authorities have not yet succeeded in capturing the murderer, who is wandering over the camps. Young Austin was only 22 years of age.

The news that Shearing had commenced in the fashionable partido of Mercedes made the gold bulls look rather colicy yesterday. Next week, if the weather be hot, there will be a burst of shearing; but it's very early, and a storm in the middle of October which is all but certain, would play the dickens with the shorn animals. However, Shearing has commenced, and God speed it.

Fighting has begun in the East of Europe; but it is evident that the Great Powers don't want war at present. There will be a Conference; another small slice taken off the Turkey, and then apparent quiet till the next row. The intervals between the rows preceding the grand final scuffle are becoming shorter and shorter.

There's something wrong at last with our invincible barometer. It has not budged the hundredth part of an inch for the last three months. We hear that many well and favourably known barometers are suffering from the same complaint.

Here's a nice piece of business! Cholera has broken out at Nice, and all the consumptive Britishers that insist on being fleeced of their cash there every winter will have to cut and run to pastures new. As usual with the authorities in an emergency, brazen lying has been resorted to, and it is officially announced that there is no cholera.

More money! Government has asked Congress to give Mr. Latzina 15,000 nats for his trouble in drawing up the scholastic census. Mr. L. deserves the money well, but where it and all the other "unconsidered trifles" of the same recently asked from Congress are to come from is really quite a puzzle to us.

The Minister of the Interior, at the instigation of the Lord Mayor, has asked Congress for a full pension for the widow of the late Mr. Obarrio, Secretary of the Municipality. "On dit" that there is great disgust in Municipal official quarters at the probability of a foreigner (Sr. Aguirre, a Spaniard) being the new Secretary.

The old tune! The grand Escuela Normal, which is only a year or two built, is already in such a tumble-down condition that 4,500 nats will have to be spent in repairing it. We hope that it will not be the same in a few years with all those tawdry edifices the Consejo de Educacion have thrown away such an awful lot of money on.

The sad suicide of Mr. John McClean caused deep regret in British circles. The unfortunate gentleman had been in a depressed state of mind ever since the death of his wife some few months ago. We tender his family and relatives our sincere sympathy on the trying occasion.

The Vice-President of the Republic and the Lord Mayor were at the Irigoyen dinner last night, and lots of minor swells besides. They were just saying grace as we were going to press, so we cannot say anything about either the dishes or the "discursos" till our next issue.

The Revista Medica has changed its lugubrious tune at last. The city health is better. Small-pox is not so bad, and people are now getting vaccinated and revaccinated with a will. Our colleague makes the fearfully startling disclosure that sixty four per cent of the deaths in this city during the past ten years have been caused by typoid fever, thanks to our odious and insane system of digging the "letrinas" down to the water.

We see in the papers a long rigmarole letter to President Roca from some Frenchmen anxious to make a fortune out of the National Treasury. They offer H. E. a meat preserving process which they naively admit "was not appreciated" in their own country and say that if H. E. summons them to the Plate, he will find them "true friends of progress!" The eloquence of Frenchmen when praising themselves (a rather frequent occurrence) beats old Cicero into a stump oration.

September is the worst month for suicides in these latitudes. There have been eighteen this month. A boy of 17 shot himself in Mendoza the other day. There was also a boy of fourteen amongst the suicides this month.

They have upset the Chair of philology in Mendoza National college, and Professor Alezandrovich has, consequently, nothing to do. The idea of Mendoza people wanting their boys taught philology!

EDITOR'S TABLE

Mr. Ribes, the millionaire owner of the Flumenense steamers, has taken a leaf from General Booth's Salvation Army book, and his favourite song now is "The devils and we can't agree." The "devils" in this instance are the Platense Company, with whom Mr. R. has failed to come to amalgamation terms. So much the better for the public, although Mr. Ribes is evidently angry at his want of success.

A pony was murdered in a scuffle in Calle Caceros the other night between two beggars on horseback. Neither of the 'mendigos' themselves was hit.

The first instalment (24,000 Nats) of Mr. Bateman's claim for commission (half a million Nats) will be paid in a few days. What it is to be a great engineer! We missed this vocation quite narrowly.

Dr. Telemachus Susini is in Berlin, studying cholera, under the famous Dr. Koch, who is, however, no longer cock of the walk in that disease.

The Argentine army of 6000 men seems to be rather over officered. It boasts of

7 Lieutenant Generals
16 Generals of Division
4 Ditto of Brigade
70 Colonels
196 Lieutenant Colonels
196 Majors
274 Captains.

and so on down to the lance corporals. The European proportion would give about 60 captains for the same number of men. No wonder the republic's War budget is so enormously bloated. It beats the hard-up horde of German princes on the British civil and military lists.

Here's another skit at the Queen's new son-in-law, in the New York World:— "Battenberg's board and lodging are fixed. He is to have the use of the porter's lodge, now elevated by royal patent into a "pavillion," at Osborne, the housekeeper's rooms at Windsor and will sleep in the butler's pantry at Balmoral.

Cardinale, the Italian singer so well-known here, is going to be married to a Californian girl with a couple of million of dollars. It is not often a singing bird feathers his nest so well.

There is an Italian Deerfoot now in Montevideo who is said to be a wonder in the running line, and to have beaten horses innumerable; but this we stoutly refuse to believe. His name is Baargossi, and he has lately astonished the Brazilians. His wife is a worthy helpmate, as she can cover the ground at the rate of 7 kilometers per hour; and their son, a boy of 14, can do 13 kilometres in the 60 minutes. The fleet-footed couple (the boy is in Paris) are expected here shortly.

The Cosmopolitan Mutual Aid Society are going to present the Senators and Deputies of the nation with a gold (Patagonian gold?) album for having abolished the lotteries. No man in this country, be he Editor or Senator, doctor, drover, or Deputy, can do his duty even in the mildest way without running the risk of being gold-medalled, albumed, or buttered-up in some way or other. It is a very bad custom, and should be discountenanced.

His Serene Highness Prince Hohenlohe is in the Chaco, hunting tigers. We hope the tigers won't hunt him. The Chaco tigers are wretched brutes. Bengal is the proper place to be eaten by a tiger.

Six thousand hands are already called for, for harvest work at Esperanza and another Santa Fè colony.

The Naposta river mole at Bahia Blanca will be inaugurated on the 15th prox.

The Oasis of San Luis gives an extraordinary hint about a homeopathic doctor and a lawyer up there who hunt in couples, the former's mission being to despatch his patients to the happy hunting grounds, and the latter's to take their estates in hand and leave their heirs in the street. Pleasant kind of long firm this.

A secret Message about the Misiones question was sent to Congress yesterday.

The Director General of Rentas has dropped a line to the Finance Minister to say that there is lots of smuggling of all kinds (tell us something we don't know) going on in the Custom House. He says a great source of leakage is the want of any control over the 'vistas' who have the keys of the deposits.

The Engineers' Department recommend the purchase of a score of 'Detainers' for the National Railways, at a couple of sovs. each. They prevent carriages and waggons running away when left to themselves. If the country could only get hold of a 'Detainer' that would prevent squandering and running away with public money, how happy it would be.

There is just now a knotty Pickwickean point over which the brains of our excellent Rural Society seem to have come to a stand-still. The case is simply this: If a sheep or a horse, or a cow, or an ass, or a lot of asses, be sent to the Society's Exhibition next year, and any of them should happen to die there, can they be replaced by other asses? It has been decided that they can, on condition that they be just the same kind of asses as the defunct animals. It's very hard to get two asses perfectly alike; in fact it is the great variety of the species that constitutes its charm.

Too Conscientious.—"I have found it best," observed Green, "to always tell my wife everything I do. It keeps us happy, and we never have a quarrel. Why don't you try it?" "Don't think I could make it work, old man," said Brown; "you know I always did detest lying."

A French author has translated a passage from one of Cooper's novels as follows:—"He descended from his horse in front of the chateau, and tied him to a large grasshopper." The original reads, "a large locust" (tree).

Gold	39.10 o/o prem.
Cedulas A	100¾
Cedulas E.............	81⅓
Cedulas G	87¼
Municipal Bonds	72½

The wave of the bullish tide continued to rise this morning, after a slight decline of a fraction under last night's top prices. The progress of the market has been very steady of late; the advance of the premium at afterhours has been daily checked by a pause and decline during official hours, quickly followed by a sharp reaction and rapid rise every evening. To-day's speculation, however, showed that the market has entered its liquidation period, and, in the absence of a stirring operation, affairs appear to have reached a high level from which they will probably decline the moment the liquidating process is at an end. The main point at present is the attitude of the Provincial Bank, as the Board refused to draw yesterday, and nobody knows if it will resume drawing at last week's rates. It stands to reason that, if the Bank continues drawing at 33⅜d and 3.55 fcs., gold is dear at 39 o/o; on the other hand, if the Bank suspends its exchange operations, gold may, or may not be, cheap at 39 o/o, and the quotation will depend on the current of the speculation.

The Government has sent a message to the National Senate, and a secret Session will be held to discuss the contents, which are supposed to be the basis of a new loan negotiation with the London and Paris Syndicate of bankers. It is believed by the majority that the bill will be unanimously passed and that immediately afterwards negotiations will be reopened with the Syndicate on a new basis. The negotiation of the loan may be accepted as a foregone conclusion, and the business is a mere question of weeks.

Rumors were circulated to-day, announcing that the Minister of Finance had determined to send in his resignation to President Roca. These reports, we think, are premature; they are launched on the market, because it is generally opined that Dr Pacheco opposes the loan, but until the Senate votes the bill of the Government, subject of a secret Session, there is no plausible ground for anticipating the withdrawal of Dr Pacheco from the Cabinet. The latest report about the loan business is, that the bankers have withdrawn all the onerous conditions of the first negotiation, and that the new basis of arrangement is so favorable to the Argentine Government, that Congress will vote the preliminary bill of the Executive without delay or opposition.

About one hundred thousand gold dollars changed hands for cash; the market opened at 39, fell to 38.80, and closed firm at 39.10. Nearly $600,000 were sold for to-morrow; rates opened at 39.40, fell to 38.80, and closed hard at 39.10. Operations for the end of October embraced half a million dollars; the market opened at 38⅛, fell to 37.80, and closed at 38. Forty thousand were sold for the end of November at 37½. The sales marked on the black board exceeded a million dollars.

Great apathy prevails in Cedulas. A few thousand Series A and E changed hands at 100¾ and 81⅓ respectively. Operations in Series G embraced 2000 for cash at 87½, and 35,000 for to-morrow at 87½. Nothing was reported in Certificates or paid-up shares of the National Bank.

Mr Roca, the well-known Italian broker, sold at auction to-day 5,300 Municipal Bonds at 72½ o/o. This quotation shews the rather low credit of the Municipality. It may interest shareholders of the old Gas Company that his Lordship has sent the Company's old account for gas to the Municipal accountant. It remains to be seen if this will hasten the payment of the old account.

Dr. Terra, Minister of Finance of the Uruguayan Government, will soon resign his high post in the Cabinet, according to our Oriental colleagues. The talented Dr., it is rumored, will go to London as Uruguayan Minister.

Messrs. Bullrich & Co. have sold the fine property, corner of Calle Piedad and Talcahuano, for 65,500 $m/n. Buyer, Mr M. Gutierrez. This property measures 32⅔ yards by 52½.

The head of the Colonies Department in Santa Fé writes to the Chief of the Immigration Office in this city, asking for 3000 emigrants to meet the immediate demands of the labor market in the Colonies. Mr Navarro will soon be requested to send up 30,000 hardy Italians to take in the crops. High wages will be paid in October and November, as the demands of the clip and of the harvest will call for every available man in the country.

The following is a summary of operations effected this morning at the ring during official hours:—

Interest on loans of 16th Nov., 1863, 19th Oct., 1876, and Treasury Bills will be payable to bondholders at the National Public Credit Office on 1st to 8th Oct. from 11 a.m. to 3 p.m.

Messrs Talfaerro y Sanchez sold to-day 27 rams from the Cabaña Rivadavia, at an average price of 97$m/n per head.

Mr A Bullrich sold to-day a league of land in Las Flores for 21,500$m/n. Buyers Messrs M Plaza Montero and Zeriboni.

Messrs Bullrich & Co sold yesterday seven leagues of land situated near Melincue, in the province of Santa Fé, at the rate of 10.50$m/n per square, say 16,800 $m/n per league. The land was sold in small lots of 100 squares for purposes of colonizing. Mr Ledesma, buyer.

The Montevidean Chambers have thrown out the proposed additional tax of 1½ o/o on tobacco and spirits.

The Orenoque has arrived at Montevideo. Her mails will be up to-morrow morning.

The Limay land auction came off to-day. We give particulars in another column.

Several small parcels of new wool were exhibited in the South Plaza this morning, but, although the consignees were willing to sell them, they failed to obtain an offer to satisfy their pretensions. In the Once market some small lots arrived also, and the following sales were reported:—

One parcel of prime wool at 83 $m/c.
Do do good wool at 70 $m/c.

In the present demoralized state of the wool market, it is not to be wondered if the above lots failed to fetch higher prices; but little importance is attached to these two first sales. Fair quantities of wool are expected to arrive in the South Plaza next week.

The Cuvier has arrived at Montevideo with fifty thousand sovereigns for the Provincial Bank of this city. The gold will be up to-morrow morning in the Silex.

The gold market ruled dull and weak during afterhours. About two hundred thousand dollars were sold for to-morrow at 39 and 38.80, closing rate, sellers. A few thousand were sold for October at 38 and 37.80. Three hundred shares of the National Bank were sold for the end of October, cum dividend, at 148.

Very large amounts of gold were passed over to October to-day. Operations direct were done at one dollar difference but some well-known broker of speculative manipulation managed to pass at 1.20 and more. Several lots of one hundred thousand dollars were carried at one dollar, and operations at the ring were very much larger than reflected by the figures on the black board.

The French packet left yesterday with 1,150,000 francs in gold. This is the normal amount of shipments of each mail. Operators on 'Change had anticipated a heavier shipment. The exchange market continues at a stand-still. Drawers at 46¾ d; takers at 46⅞. It is strange that such apathy should seize the market at this time of the year. The money market continues very easy for paper and tight as ever for gold. Some large gold bills fall due to-morrow on 'Change, principally for banks, but it is surmised that these large amounts will be carried to next month at 1 to 1½ difference. If the banks exact the gold, there will be a decided squeeze round the ring.

From the Plaza Once de Setiembre we have the following:—

86 waggons arrived with produce.

The arrivals were:—
550 @ of new wool
2,870 doz. sheepskins
4,600 doz. corderitos

The Paraguayan Government has at last acknowledged the validity of Mrs Lynch's valuable titles to large areas of land in that Republic. We hear that her two sons are at present in Paraguay and that they are selling their mother's valuable estates. Capitalists in this market are plunging head and ears into Paraguayan lands. These lands are selling for a song and they are taken up as fast as hot buns. Mr. Bianchi, of this market, has just invested 4,000 m/n in forty leagues of Paraguayan land, and many other transactions are spoken of, but kept in the dark. Land at 100 m/n per league looks awfully cheap, and at the rate this speculation is spreading, the present buyers will make handsome profits in the boom that is rising.

Several sheepfarmers in Mercedes have already begun to shear their flocks, but this is the exception. The majority of farmers are waiting for warmer weather.

After several months of speculative lethargy, during which business languished and brokers' commissions were reduced to wooden matches, alarming symptoms of a quake in the Montevidean Bolsa began to be felt at the end of last week. The storm burst yesterday, and the breezy state of affairs reminded the brokers of the palmy days of the old speculation. Unifieds had been heavily overbought, and the liquidation of the month began yesterday at an early hour. Prices came down by the run, but stopped at 50 o/o, when a leading operator stepped in and bought heavily. His heavy purchases put up the market and the stock closed in advance at 51, after a most exciting speculative struggle. Rates, nevertheless, closed under Saturday's last prices. There was a moment yesterday when the stock was quoted at 49½. The day's business was the liquidation of the month's operations. Telegrams from London quote Unifieds on the Stock Exchange at 51⅝, buyers. The exchange market in the Mount continues dull and without alteration in rates.

Messrs. Schwartz & Co. have organized a party to leave in the middle of next month for the valley of the Rio Negro and the far famed Nahuel Huapi Lake. The party will take with them a splendid Brazilian cano, cut out of the trunk of an immense tree, and fitted up with an engine and propeller; as the canoe draws little water, and has accommodation for at least twenty people, the party feel confident that they will be able to steam up the Rivers Negro and Limay to the very lake and foot of the Andes. Baron von Pollnitz, we hear, is one of the party. Messrs. Schwartz & Co., our readers will remember, obtained two valuable land concessions of 32 square leagues each, in the Manzana country, between Junin de los Andes and Maipu; these concessions they intend colonizing with German families and the present party is organized to visit and report on the quality, situation and prospects of the lands granted by the Government.

The following sales of produce are reported in Montevideo:—

2,000 dry hides, 'mal desechos', at 58 rls.
100 bales sheepskins at reserved price.
4,600 qq. jerked beef, habanera and bonita quality, at 22½ rls. This consignment is from a Gualeguaychu saladero, payable in Montevideo and to be shipped in the Spanish barque India.

Messrs. Pico & Gomez, landbrokers, give the following land sales effected in the last fortnight:—

Province of Buenos Ayres—

Section 4, lots 13 and 14, four leagues at 6,500 m/n per league; buyer S Monsegur.

Lot 53, 4 leagues for 7,500 m/n each; buyer, S Barés.

Partido Coronel Suarez, two leagues close to La Gama station for 21,000 m/n each; buyer, J Pourtalé.

Partido of 25 de Mayo, 1½ league for 13,340 m/n per league.

Partido of Maipu, one league for 62,000 m/n to J M Bustillos.

Partido of Tres Arroyos, three leagues for 11,670 m/n per league.

Partido of Lincoln, close to the Charcas, 1½ league for 23,000 m/n per league; buyer, Mr Arguello.

Partido of Carmen de Areco, 80 squares at 63.61 m/n per square; buyer, M M Linch.

Province of Santa Fé—

Six square leagues for 5,000 m/n per league to E Romero.

Province of Cordoba—

Section I, lot 7 E, four leagues for 5,500 m/n per league to E Romero.

Misiones, 12 square leagues for 900 m/n per league to Cafette.

The losses in the Province of Entre Rios this season are calculated at 300,000 head in the herds and 100,000 in the flocks. The mortality was caused principally by ticks in the herds and worms in the flocks.

Messrs. Risso Patron & Co. sold on last Sunday the following properties:—
